A Day Begins...

As the parking lot fills with cars, a bell rings and the procession into school begins. Some drag their feet, trying to postpone the start as long as possible. A few walk swiftly to meet someone or perform some important task. Most just drift in, wondering what the day has in store for them.

. . . And as It Progresses

Things happen. At times it seems that it would be easier just to give up and go home. Then at other times, when the sun is shining and someone smiles at you, all your worries fade into nothingness and life is one big party.

The True Feeling at GHS Unfolds

Spirit is an elusive thing. It is hard to define, but you know when you have it. The true feeling of GHS consists of many things. It is a pep rally, a football game, semester tests, and school dances. It is Class Night, the Prom, and singing the Alma Mater at graduation. The true spirit of Gainesville High School is what each student feels in his heart for the school and his fellow students.

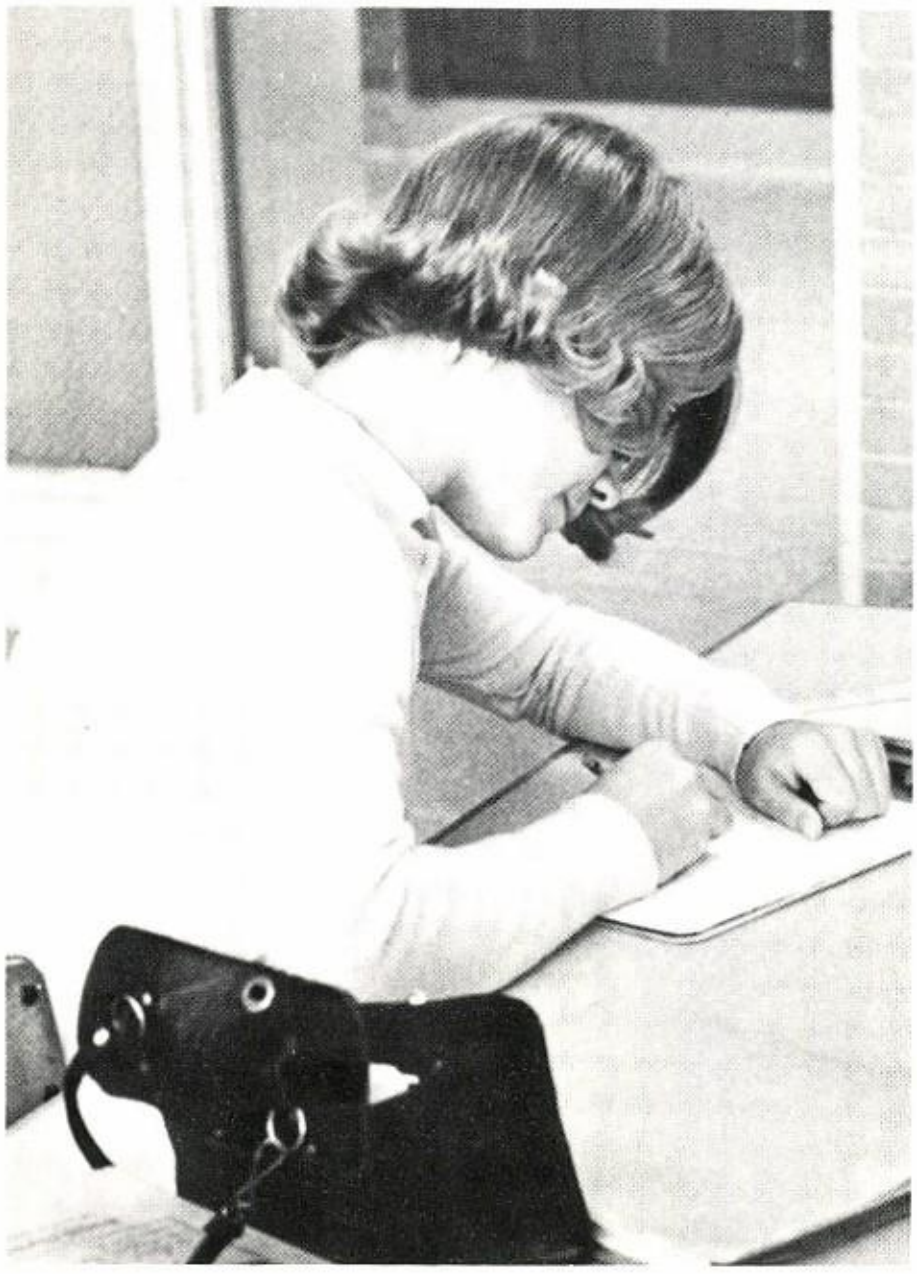
Just ask Susan Touchstone, she can tell you that being editor-in-chief requires deep concentration.



Some of those hairy newspaper stories are really tough to write.

Selecting the right picture to go into the LEOPARD TALE can really get to be a group project.

Bonfire Creates Homecoming Excitement

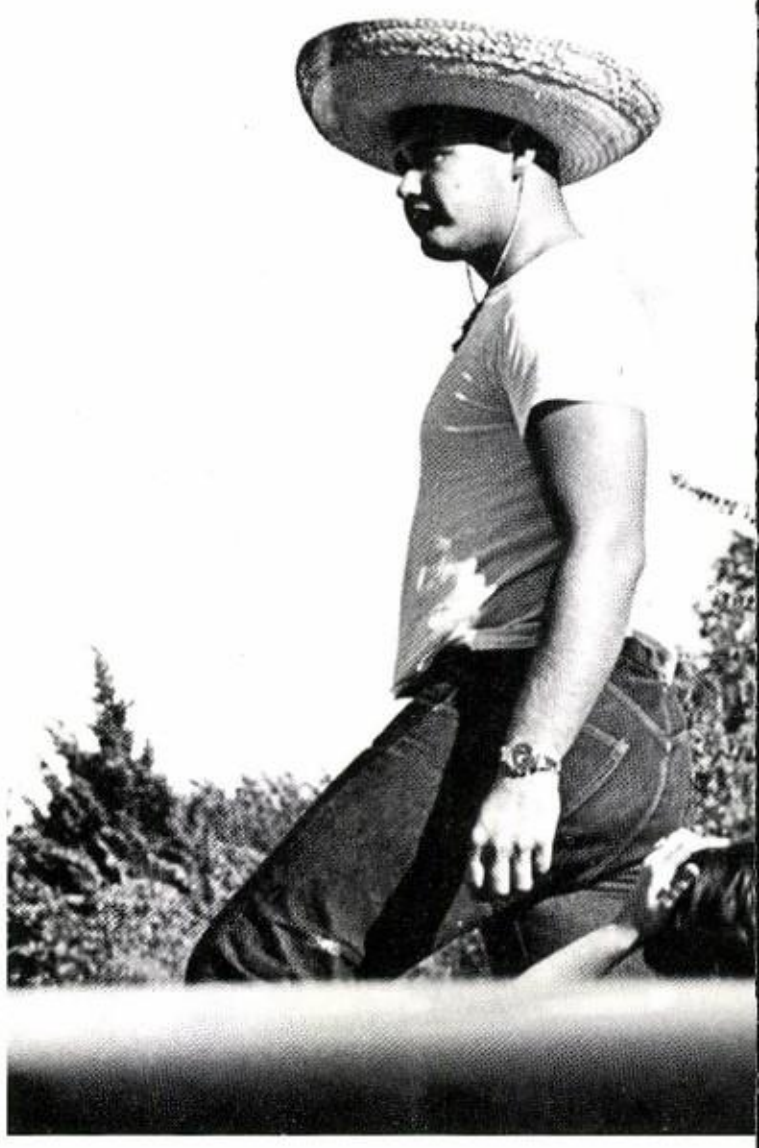
Freshmen caught in the act of building the bonfire.

Well, if it isn't some of our enthusiastic junior bonfire builders.

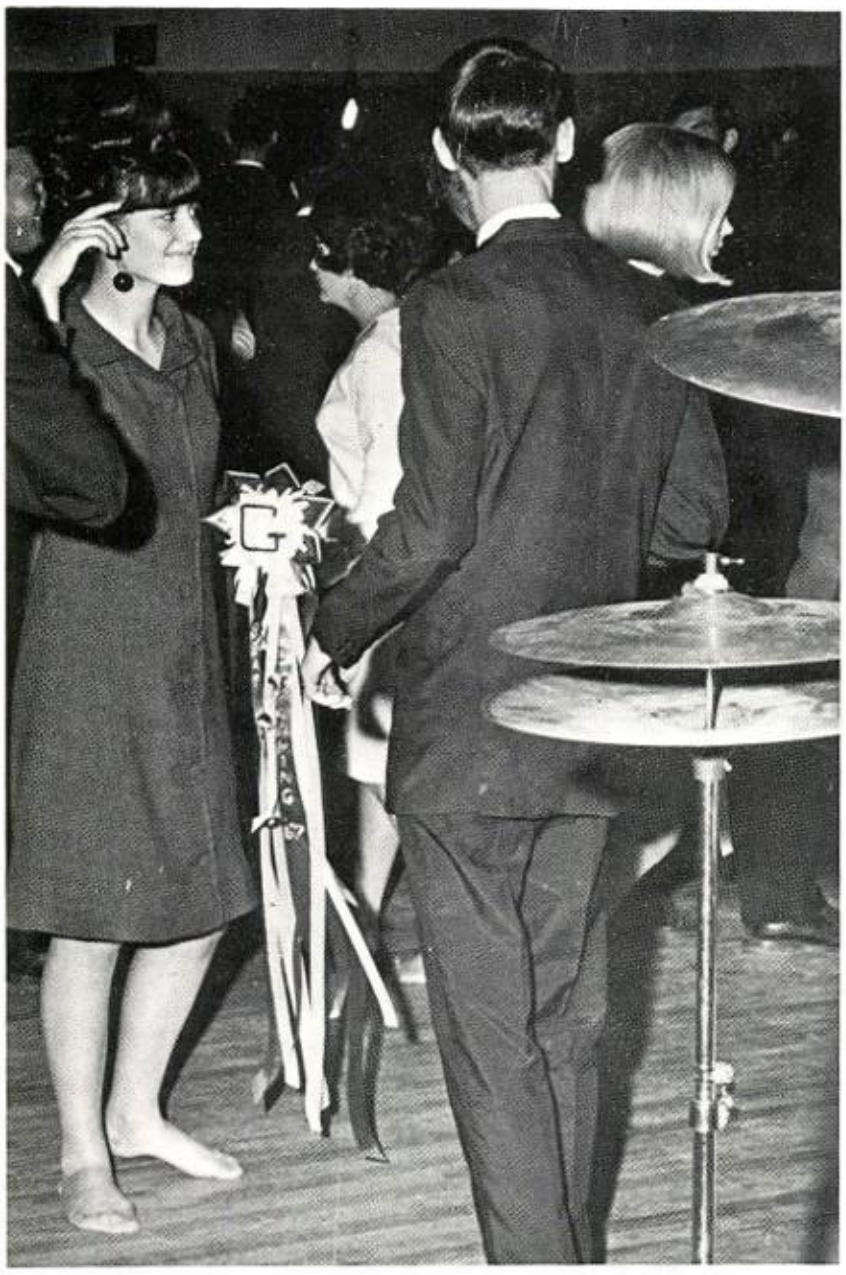


Building a bonfire always brings out the true personality of Larry Collings.

It makes you wonder if some of these freshmen even know how to build a bonfire.

Cheerleader Robin Morris sets the bonfire ablaze.

No matter where you are, some people always have their mouths open.



You never can tell who will be barefootin' next.

Jerry Stansbury demonstrates his high-stepping dancing ability at the Homecoming dance.

Dance Climaxes Homecoming Activities

Charlotte Ware and Cynthia Harrison engage in their favorite pastime -- gossiping.

Maybe if you count out loud Kathy, you will be able to keep up with Pat.

After being crowned Homecoming Queen at the half-time activities, Kathy Barnes and escort Chuck Gandillon dance to the music of the Bedbugs.

Leopard Follies Presents:

A Quiet Evening at Home

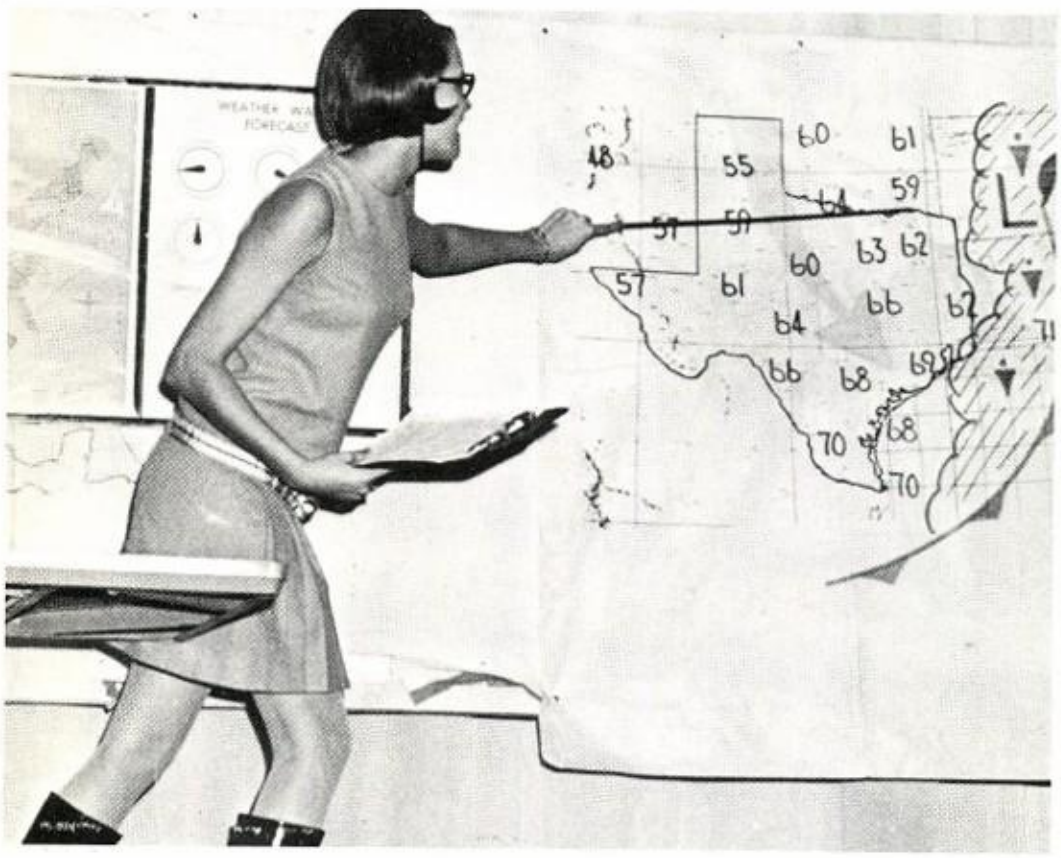
This year's Leopard Follies was presented solely by members of Gainesville High School. The new concept was very well accepted and raised over a thousand dollars for the student council.

The theme of the Follies was centered around television watching.



"We'll have clear skies and snow," forecasts Mollie Moseley.

Robin Morris as Lotta Pazazz

Pam Hatcher can't remember which toot to kick.

Lynn Wheeler sings "Ode to Billy Joe."

"I heard that Allison is not as sweet as she pretends to be," says Belinda Reed to Mitzie Young.

"Just fake it Donna," says David Howeth.

English Setting for 1968 Musical - "Half A Sixpence"

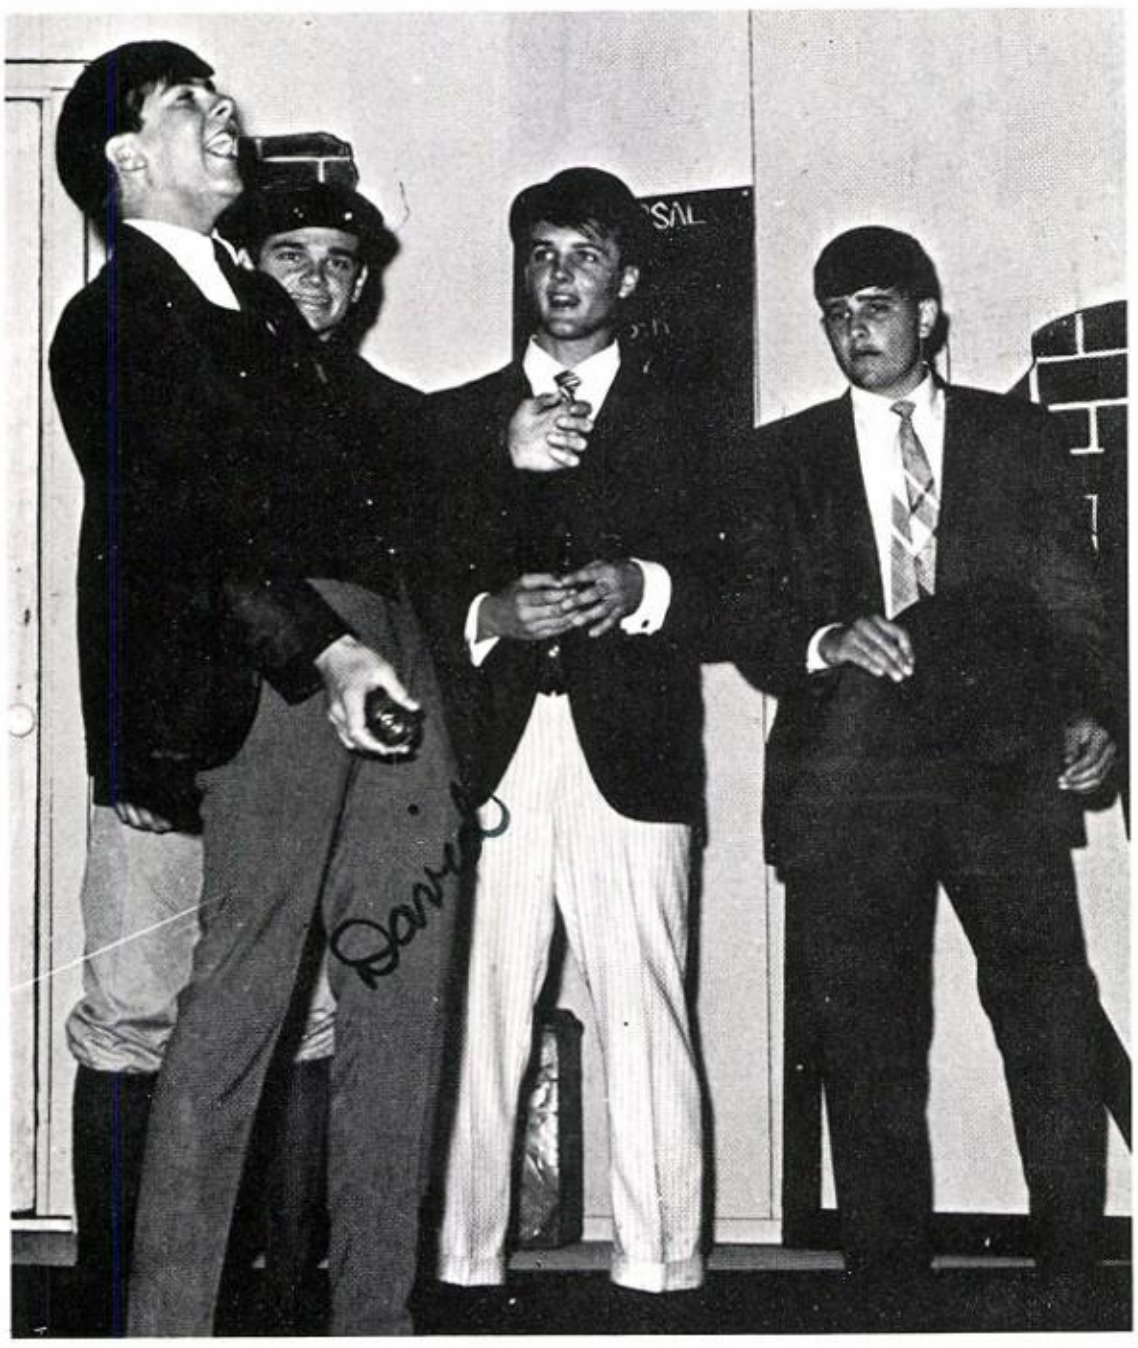
The Choral department presented the musical comedy, "Half a Sixpence" on May 3-4. The brilliant work of the department and the cast helped to make the production a success.

The shop boys immortalize their job.

"You had better not make another crack about my knickers," warns James Braswell.

"We're going to be one big happy family," theorizes Helen Walsingham.



"I never knew that a celebration could be so much fun," exclaims Kipps.

Football

Drum major, David Howeth, and Mascot, Bridgette Armstrong, perform during half-time activities.

Football involves many people at Gainesville High School and to each of these people it means something different. To the band director and the drill team sponsor, football is getting a half-time performance ready. To members of the band and White Waves, football is going to school early to practice and perfect routines on cold, often muddy fields. It is getting uniforms ready and arriving at Leeper Stadium early on Friday night. Playing the fight song in times of victory or to renew letdown spirits, making a victory line for the Leopards, keeping spirits high, and the half-time show are football.

Drill team and drum major rock with spirit during the opening kick-off of the Mt. Pleasant game.

For the cheerleaders football is the end result of nervous tryouts and many hours of practice, sore muscles and sore throats. It is long bus rides and giving up free time. It is pep rallies. The pep rallies are a time of rising spirit. It is a time for making signs and being in skits. It is a time to unite and let the Leopards know we are behind them. Pep rallies are noise filled masses of people suddenly hushed by our Alma Mater.
To Paula Buck, the 1967 Football Sweetheart, it will always be something special.

Coach Weddle is caught up in the spirit of the Bonham pep rally.

Paula Buck, the 1967 Football Sweetheart was presented with roses during half-time of Lewisville game.

Bonfire and cheerleaders ignite spirit for McKinney football game.

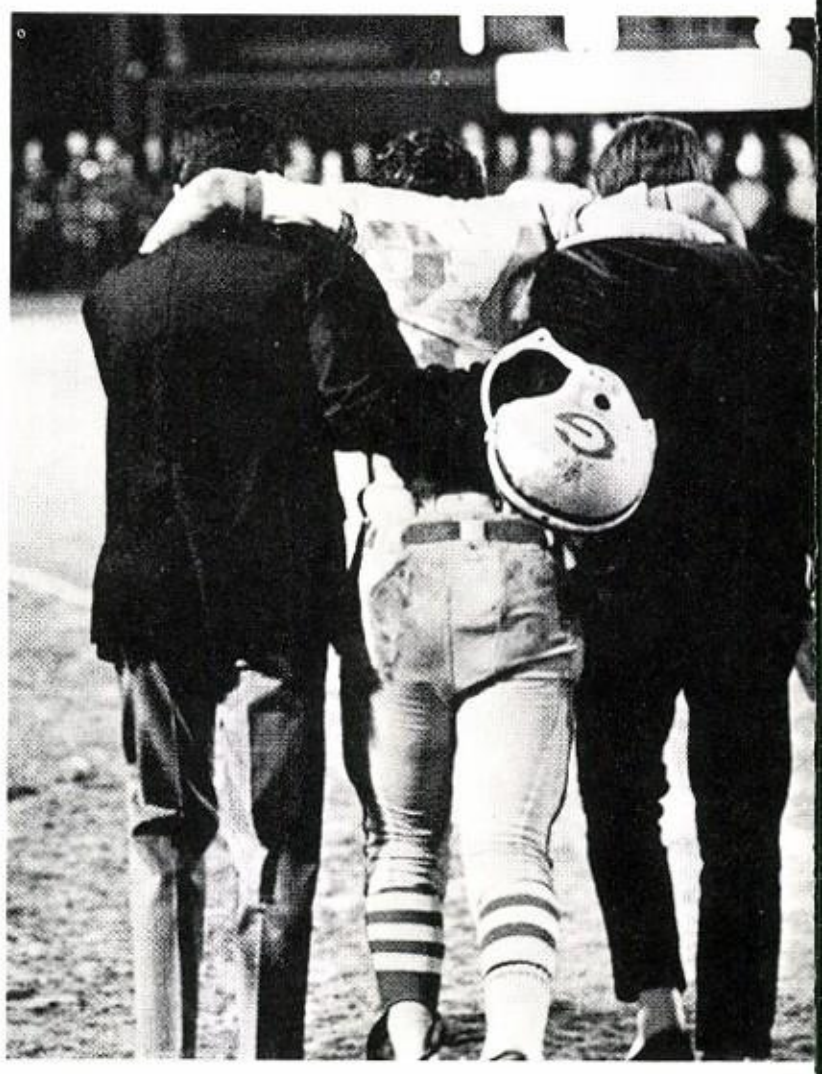
Students show enthusiasm on red and white day at G. H. S.

To some a football game is a time to reflect on their own football days. To others it is a time to dream of the day when they can play varsity football. It is a time to show off new clothes or a mum. It is coming and sharing the near hysteria of a Leopard touchdown or the frustration and disappointment of a loss. To the coaches, football is a way of life. It is spending the week working with the boys on new plays and strategy for the upcoming games. It is staying on the sidelines and giving instructions. It is giving the boys the desire to win.

Coach Price solemnly discusses new strategy for second half of Sherman game.

Long, hot two-a-days are just part of the preparation toward a Friday night football game.

To a football player, football is a way of life - filled with bruises, broken bones, and personal satisfaction. It is filled with triumphs and disappointments. It is the joy of scoring a touchdown or the agony of missing a pass that might have won the game. It is long hours of two-a-days, half-time talks, Sprite breaks, and getting to play on Friday night. To a few it is preparation for a college football career, but for most, it will remain simply as the most memorable part of high school.



To the football player football is bruises, breaks, and exhaustion. It is a way of life the spectators can never fully understand.

Mike,
I've enjoyed knowing you because of your wh... uh... uh... personality. Seriously though, I'll miss you next year, so write if you get a chance.
Kitty

Mike,
You know how much having you as a friend means to me. I see now that one of the advantages of going school close to home is that I'll be able to continue to run around with you. You are one of the best comrades and confidants a guy could have.
Fuck and happiness forever,
Jimmy Simpson

Mike -
words cannot express
how much our friendship meant to me. I enjoyed working with you and planning
such things as "The CAMPAIGN,"
"The FOLLIES," & various other fantastic productions. You are probably the closest thing to completely "outasite" that I have ever met. good luck always, and I will never forget all the fun
we had.

Sincerely,
David Howeth

Mike —
It sure was been fun
working around with you.
You've got a tremendous personality — stay original.
Much luck and the best of everything always —
Karen Galbraith

Mike,
You know, I got
awful sick of GHS
during the last four years. If it wasn't for the people like
you being around,
I probably be a
drop out or something.
Its been good knowing
you. See you Xmas.
+ Good luck always.
Really. Take care,
Diana

Mike,

When you leave like I left you found out who your friends are. I really appreciated you writing while I was in Atlanta. I'll be coming back to Gainesville a few times in the next few years so keep Gville from getting stolen. okey doke? I'll be expecting you to visit me somewhere in the U.S. If you don't I'll just have tell you about it.

Tyke

Dear Mike,
Well, I thought we'd probably get rid of you when you graduated but no! You have to attend the school of the elite "CCJC". No I'm just kidding its been real fun knowing you and your friendship ~~fun~~ meant a lot. Sincerely, Nanci Galbraith has

(No I spell!)

DEAR MIKE,
WELL, THE halls of G.H.S. ARE NEVER going to BE the same without YOU THERE. (Should I say you and Jimmy) How do you get in good with MRS. Ried like Jo Ann Street did. You're ~~the~~ a VERY GREAT Kid. I'll NEVER FORGET YOU. Come OVER ANY time. YOUR WELCOME OVER MY HOUSE ANYTIME.

LOVE ya always

Mike —
Words can not discribe what
I feel for you.
But I'll try
to think of one.
THIRM! That's
it. No really—you are an idiot, but a great friend anyhow.
I'll always read
your columns
if you'll come to my musicals.
